

The Life and Work of Micere Mugo

SYMPOSIUM ON PAN-AFRICANISM, AFRICANA FEMINISM AND ORATURE:

The Michigan State University African Studies Center, Department of African and African American Studies, and The Institute of Ubuntu Thought and Practice invite you to a one-day symposium exploring the rich intersections of Pan-Africanism, Africana feminism, and orature within the life and works of the esteemed Micere Mugo, a distinguished Pan-African feminist and storyteller.

Symposium panels and panelists:

Panel 1: Pan Africanism and Feminism

- Dr. Carol Boyce Davies: Professor and Chair, Department of English, Howard University
- Dr. Horace Campbell: Professor of African American Studies and Political Science; Director, The Africa Initiative of Syracuse University
- Dr. Wangui wa Goro: Professor of Translation Practice & Visiting Academic, King's College London, UK
- Dr. Michael West: Professor of African American Studies, History, and African Studies, Department of African American Studies, Penn State University

Panel 2: Pan Africanism, Literature and Orature

- Dr. Suban Nur Cooley: Assistant Professor and Associate Chair, Director of Community, Culture, and Collectivity, MSU, Department of African American and African Studies
- Dr. Philip Effiong: Associate Professor, MSU, Department of Theatre Studies & Integrative Studies
- Dr. Derek Peterson: Ali Mazrui Collegiate Professor of History and African Studies, University of Michigan
- Dr. Ndirangu Wachanga: Professor of Media Studies and Information Science at University of Wisconsin-Whitewater

APRIL 9TH, 2024
9:30 AM TO 5 PM
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY
303 INTERNATIONAL CENTER

African Studies Center
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY